Another Pioneer Gone---Death of Wm. Stephenson.

William Stephenson, son of Robert and Jane Stephenson, was born March 19, 1804, in Greenbrier county, Va., and came with his parents to Champaign county, Ohio, in the year 1812.

About the year 1830, he, with a party of others, emigrated to Michigan, which was then the "far West." There he was married to Louisa Switzer. To them were born 7 children—2 sons and 5 daughters, 6 of whom lived to man and womanhood, one dying in infancy.

At the breaking out of the late civil war, the sons, fired with patriotic zeal and love of country, were among the first to enlist—one, I think, being the second Rushcreek tp. man to respond to the first call for volunteers. One found a grave in the far South; another returned home only to live a few weeks. The oldest daughter, Mrs. E. J. Fawcett, died in 1862. One of the remaining daughters resides in Kenton, O., another in this county, and the youngest has always lived with her parents on the farm. The mother died in the year 1881.

In 1840 the deceased made a profession of religion, and united with the Christian church, ever after holding fast to the faith. Often in his declining years he would express himself as only waiting for the Master's call.

In 1844 he, with his family, removed to the farm in Logan county, O., where he resided until his death, which occurred May 18th, 1895, at 7:30 p. m., at the ripe age of 91 years and 2 months.

Name History and Origin for John Stephenson

First Name

John
English form of Latin Johannes, New Testament Greek Ioannes, a contracted form of the Hebrew name Johanan "God is gracious" (the name of several different characters in the Old Testament, including one of King David's "mighty men"). John is the spelling used in the Authorized Version of the New Testament. The name is of great importance in early Christianity: it was borne by John the Baptist (the precursor of Christ himself, who baptized sinners in the River Jordan), by one of Christ's disciples (John the Apostle, a fisherman, brother of James), and by the author of the fourth gospel (John the Evangelist, identified in Christian tradition with the apostle, but more probably a Greek-speaking Jewish Christian living over half a century later). The name was also borne by many subsequent Christian saints and by twenty-three popes, including John XXIII (Giuseppe Roncalli, 1881–1963), whose popularity was yet another factor influencing people to choose this given name. It was also a royal name, being born by eight Byzantine emperors and by kings of Hungary, Poland, Portugal, France, and elsewhere. In its various forms in different languages, it has been the most perennially popular of all Christian names.

IN THE PROBATE COURT OF REPUBLIC COUNTY, KANSAS

In the matter of the estateof

JOHN STEPHENSON, JR., Deceased.

DECREE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT

Now on this 13th day of May, 1966 at 2 p.m., it being the day and hour set forth in the notice of hearing, the above entitled estate comes on before the court upon the petition of Frank G. Spurney, administrator with the will annexed of the estate of said John Stephenson, Jr., for the final settlement thereof, said administrator appearing in person; and Velma Shipp and Howard Stephenson, and the unknown heirs, executors, administrators, devisees, trustees and assigns of John Stephenson, Jr., deceased, do not appear either in person or by attorney, and none of them have filed any pleadings or answer to said petition.

Thereupon the Court examines its order to give notice, notice given with proof of publication, and affidavit of mailing with notice thereto attached, all as filed herein, and finds that all persons interested in said estate, including Velma Shipp and Howard Stephenson and the unknown heirs, executors, administrators, devisees, trustees and assigns of John Stephenson, Jr., deceased, have been notified of this hearing, said service as filed herein is by the court approved, and said Velma Shipp and Howard Stephenson, and the unknown heirs, executors, administrators, devisees, trustees and assigns of John Stephenson, Jr., deceased, are adjudged to be in default for failing to appear or file any written defenses to said petition.

Thereupon, the court considers an affidavit filed herein and finds that none of Velma Shipp and Howard Stephenson are entitled to the benefits and protection of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940 as amended.

Thereupon the court considers an application filed herein for the appointment of a military attorney for such of the unknown heirs, executors, administrators, devisees, trustees and assigns of John Stephenson, Jr., deceased, as may be entitled to the benefits and protection of the above Congressional Act as amended, and after due consideration thereof, finds that said application should be and it is hereby allowed, and it is by the Court ordered that Fred Swoyer, an attorney and a member of the Republic County Kansas bar be, and he is hereby appointed attorney for such of the unknown heirs, executors, administrators, devisees, trustees and assigns of John Stephenson, Jr., deceased, as may be entitled to his services under the above Congressional Act.

Thereupon the said Fred Swoyer, is notified of his appointment as such military attorney, and after accepting such appointment, and after being informed of the issues before the court, files an answer to said petition and also appears herein in person.

And, the issues being thus joined, and the appearances and nonappearances being as above noted, the court proceeds with the hearing upon said petition; evidence is introduced in support of the petition, and after hearing all of the evidence so introduced, and being fully advised in the premises, the court finds that the allegations are true, that the petitioner is entitled to the relief and judgments prayed for, and further finds without in anyway limiting said general findings as follows:

That Frank G. Spurney is a resident of Republic County, Kansas and that Belleville, Kansas is his correct post office address.

That said Frank G. The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me; Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil,
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

it is the first source the researcher should consult. The CMSR is an envelope (a jacket) containing one cards. These cards typically indicate that the soldier was present or absent during a certain period of ti cards may indicate the date of enlistment and discharge, amount of bounty paid him, and other inforr as wounds received during battle or hospitalization for injury or illness. The soldier's place of birth ma indicated; if foreign born, only the country of birth is stated. The CMSR may contain an internal jacket "personal papers" of various kinds. These may include a copy of the soldier's enlistment paper, papers his capture and release as a prisoner of war, or a statement that he had no personal property with hir derived from other sources.

A CMSR is as complete as the surviving records of an individual soldier or his unit. The War Departme efficient checking of military and medical records in connection with claims for pensions and other vete benefits. The abstracts were so carefully prepared that it is rarely necessary to consult the original mu and other records from which they were made. When the War Department created CMSRs at the turn century, information from company muster rolls, regimental returns, descriptive books, hospital rolls, records was copied verbatim onto cards. A separate card was prepared each time an individual name a document. These cards were all numbered on the back, and these numbers were entered onto the o containing the cards. The numbers on the jacket correspond with the numbers on the cards within the These numbers were used by the War Department only for control purposes while the CMSRs were bei the numbers do not refer to other records regarding a veteran nor are they useful for reference purpo
